WAKEFIELD, Mass. - Fan voting for the Hockey East 35th Anniversary Team is now open, the league announced today. The selection of the all star team is part of the conference's year-long celebration of 35 years of excellence.

Fans can vote for a team of 35 forwards and 35 defenders, including defensemen and goaltenders, as part of the 35th anniversary celebration until February 15. The special team will be chosen by a combination of fan voting and league committee voting, consisting of league staff, school staff and members of the media.

Members of the Hockey East 25th Anniversary Team, denoted by asterisks on the ballot, were automatically placed on the 35th team ballot. The remaining nominees were selected by the conference and school staffs for each player's accomplishments while playing in Hockey East.

To submit votes, fans can visit HockeyEastOnline.com and select 20-35 forwards and 20-35 defenders for a maximum of 70 players. Submissions that do not fall within these vote ranges will be discarded. Fans may vote once each day per valid email address through Friday, February 15.
