LEAGUE-RECORD 92 GAMES TO AIR ON 13-14 COMPOSITE TV SCHEDULE ~ 36 games aired nationally in league's 30th anniversary season ~

Wakefield, Mass. - Hockey East Association Commissioner Joe Bertagna announced on Friday the league's composite television schedule for the upcoming 30th anniversary season.

New England college hockey fans will have access to a league-record 92 telecasts involving Hockey East teams in 2013-2014, including 36 games on national networks, which is the most of any Division I hockey conference. NBC Sports Network and Fox College Sports with provide national coverage for the conference, along with regional coverage on New England Sports Network (NESN). The league will also receive valuable regional and local exposure on WBIN-TV in Massachusetts and New Hampshire, Cox Sports in Providence and WVII/WFVX in Bangor, Maine. Hockey East fans can also watch games live on the internet, as video streaming is available at all league schools, excluding select TV games. (Please note: A complete updated list will be published again in the coming weeks as more games are added).
