Semifinal tickets include admission to both semifinal games.

Winners of the semifinals will advance to the Hockey East title game, set for 7:00 p.m. Saturday, March 21, to determine the winner of the 2015 Lamoriello Trophy.

Student tickets, located in the upper balcony, will be made available for $10 when showing a valid student ID, either on campus or at the TD Garden Box Office. Groups of 15 or more are also eligible for a $5 discount on $17 balcony seats and a $7 discount on select loge seats. All discounted tickets must be purchased at the TD Garden Box Office. To take advantage of group discounted tickets, contact the TD Garden group sales department at 617-624-1805 or groupsales@tdgarden.com. Tickets will become available on the campuses beginning on Monday, March 16 when the four remaining schools are identified.

The league recommends that fans purchase tickets in advance to avoid missing one of college hockey's most prestigious postseason tournaments. The winner of the Hockey East Championship Tournament will earn an automatic berth into the 68th annual NCAA men's ice hockey championship tournament and have a chance to reach the 2015 NCAA Frozen Four, hosted by Hockey East at the TD Garden.

The UMass Lowell River Hawks won the second Hockey East Tournament Championship in program history, defeating New Hampshire, 4-0, to hoist the Lamoriello Trophy for the second consecutive season.

The Hockey East Association is a 12-team Division I college men's hockey conference founded in 1984 and an eight team Division I women's league which began play in 2002-03. The men's league has won eight NCAA championships in the past 21 years. Since 1999, Hockey East has won six NCAA Championships with 13 NCAA Championship Game appearances, while placing 21 teams in the Frozen Four and 52 teams in the NCAA Tournament during that time.
