Pack Network to Stream Up to 20 Hockey East Playoff Games Women's Hockey East Semifinals to Also Stream on HockeyEastOnline.TV

WAKEFIELD, Mass. - The Hockey East Association announced that Pack Network will stream up to 20 Hockey East playoff games live via HockeyEastOnline.TV. Pack Network will be the exclusive streaming partner of the Hockey East opening round and quarterfinal series and will carry each game that is not aired on NESN.

Fans can purchase a league pass for access of to up to 20 Hockey East playoff games for $59.95, beginning with this weekend's opening round games. Individual games can be purchased for $9.95 each.

Pack Network will also stream the 13th annual Women's Hockey East semifinal games live from the Hyannis Youth and Community Center this Saturday (March 7). No. 1 Boston College will square off with No. 5 UConn at 1:30 p.m. before No. 2 Boston University and No. 3 Northeastern faceoff at 4:30 p.m. in a rematch of a 2014 semifinal game. The Women's Hockey East Championship package, including both semifinals, will be available for $14.95.

In addition, fans can tune into NESN to see at least seven Hockey East playoff tilts. No. 6 Northeastern will take on No. 11 Merrimack in the opening round of the 2015 Men's Hockey East Tournament Saturday (March 7) at 4 p.m., followed up by a potential decisive Game 2 at either Northeastern or at No. 8 New Hampshire vs. No. 9 UConn Sunday (March 8) at 4:30 p.m. The Women's Hockey East Championship Game, slated for March 8 at 1:30 p.m., will air live on NESNplus and be shown on tape delay on NESN Sunday evening. NESN will carry select games from the men's quarterfinal round, on school campuses Saturday and Sunday, March 14-15, and the Hockey East semifinals and championship, March 20-21, live from TD Garden.
