Game Story

Hockey East Semifinal

No. 1 Boston College vs. No. 4 Boston University | March 16, 2018 | TD Garden

BOSTON, Mass.— A goal by Patrick Curry at 15:40 of overtime lifted fourth-seeded Boston University to a 4-3 victory over top-seeded Boston College in the semifinals of the 34th annual Hockey East Championship Friday at TD Garden.

Jordan Greenway set up three goals and Jake Oettinger made 14 of his 36 saves in overtime, as BU (20-13-4) moves on to its 12th championship game and their first since 2015 when it won the last of its eight titles. The Terriers will play the winner of Friday's second semifinal between second-seeded Northeastern and third-seeded Providence Saturday at 7 p.m. (TV-NESN Plus; ESPN 3).

Curry's wrap-around goal, assisted by Shane Bowers and Bobo Carpenter with 4:20 left in the extra session, gave BU its first and only lead of the game as they battled back from a two-goal second period deficit and rallied from trailing 3-2 in the third to force overtime.

Boston University outshot BC, 45-39, for the contest, including by a wide 38-25 margin in regulation. BC goaltender Joseph Woll was solid in the net finishing with 41 saves, with 25 stops in the first two periods.

Just 46 seconds into the contest Connor Moore opened the scoring for Boston College on assists from Graham McPhee and Aapeli Rasanen to take a quick 1-0 lead that stood through the first 20 minutes. BC also started the second strong with Julius Matilla making it 2-0 just 3:16 into the stanza rapping home a nifty feed from David Cotton.

The Terriers pressure would pay off with a pair of goals less than two minutes apart midway through the period to tie it at 2-2. Ty Amonte got BU on the board at 8:57 cutting the deficit in half converting feeds from Patrick and Greenway. They tied it 1:37 later as Greenway, who missed six games in February, started an odd-man rush with Chad Kryszewski, who fed Farrance trailing the play. Farrance blasted it past Woll from the high slot to make it 2-2.

A goal by BC's Christopher Brown, punching one home in a goal mouth scramble, gave the Eagles a brief 3-2 advantage in the third with assists going to Graham McPhee and J.D. Dudek. Drew Melanson answered for the Terriers 45 seconds later, set up by Jordan Greenway along with freshman David Farrance, to tie it at three apiece and set up overtime.

The Terriers went 0-for-3 on the power play and BC was 0-for-2. Boston College (19-14-4) is in line for an at large bid to the 2018 NCAA Men's Hockey Tournament with selections announced Sunday afternoon.

Goal Descriptions

Hockey East Semifinal

No. 1 Boston College vs. No. 4 Boston University | March 16, 2018 | TD Garden

Per.	Team	Time (Strength)	No. Player (Goal #)	Assists (Assist #)	Score
1	BC	0:46 (EV)	7 Moore (5)	27 McPhee (11) // 22 Rasanen (12)	1-0 BC

With Boston University trying to complete the clear, Rasanen steals the puck along the right boards of the Boston University zone and passes to McPhee, who is centered in the middle. With a defender between McPhee and the net, McPhee finds a trailing Moore who enters the zone from the left side. Moore's one-timer from the top of the point beats Oettinger's glove side.

2	BC	3:16 (EV)	26 Ju. Mattila (13)	17 Cotton (19)	2-0 BC
---	----	-----------	---------------------	----------------	--------

Five seconds after a faceoff in the Boston University end, the puck careened behind the Terriers net and was immediately collected by David Cotton. Cotton slung it in front of the net mouth to Julius Mattila, who immediately knocked it in, directly in front of Oettinger.

2	BU	8:57 (EV)	3 Almonte (6)	19 Hank Crone (10) // 11 Curry (5)	2-1 BC
---	----	-----------	---------------	------------------------------------	--------

Leading a two-on-one charge, Boston University's Ty Amonte beat Boston College netminder Joe Woll stick side to cut the deficit in half. Woll was forced too far out of his own crease while trying to defend the attacking Crone on the right side of the net, and a quick pass across the slot to Amonte was capitalized on when he was able to sneak the puck past Woll before the BC goaltender could get back in front of the net.

2	BU	10:34 (EV)	25 Farrance (2)	7 Krys (19) // 18 Greenway (19)	2-2

Following a pass from Greenway near center ice, Krys rushed the puck up the left side on a fast break and slid it across to Farrance, who was rushing up on the right side. Farrance's slap shot in motion from the right circle was too fast for Woll, as the puck beat him glove side for the Terriers second tally of the evening.

3	BC	14:41 (EV)	10 Brown (9)	15 Dudek (12) // 27 McPhee (12)	3-2 BC
---	----	------------	--------------	---------------------------------	--------

With possession in the Boston University zone, Kim fired a shot from the middle of the zone that was blocked by Oettinger and kicked out to the right side. McPhee's attempt to knock in the rebound from the right of the crease is stopped and bounces off the post towards the center of the crease. A scrum ensues and an initial shot by Dudek was stopped but with Oettinger out of position, Brown is able to knock in the rebound that swerves through a BU defender's legs and finds the back of the net to give Boston College back its lead.

3 BU 15:26 (EV) 23 Melanson (4) 18 Greenway (20) // 25 Farrance (6) 3-3

A slapshot from Farrance from beyond the left circle misses wide right and staggers along the boards back towards center ice. Keeping it in the zone, Greenway collects the puck and skates along the boards on the right side to the back of the netminder. Greenway slips the puck past a Boston College defender to Melanson in front of the goal. Melanson's shot sneaks between Woll's pads and through to the netting, causing the Terriers to even the contest at three apiece.

OT/1 BU 15:40 (EV) 11 Curry (3) 15 Bowers (15) // 14 Carpenter (13) 4-3 BU

With the puck behind Woll, Bowers gathers the disk and wraps it around the glove side of the Boston College netminder. Bowers then skids it across the crease to a waiting Curry, who pushes it past Woll for the game winning goal.

HOCKEY EAST TOURNAMENT SEMIFINAL POSTGAME QUOTES
BOSTON COLLEGE EAGLES VS BOSTON UNIVERSITY TERRIERS
Friday, March 16, 2018

BOSTON UNIVERSITY HEAD COACH DAVID QUINN

Opening Statement....

The overtime wasn't what we wanted it to be but so proud of our team coming back, down 2-0, digging yourself a hole against that team and that goalie, you can get a little bit demoralized but we never quit. We kept coming. I really liked a lot about our game. Thought we were a little tired in the third where they had a couple of shifts where they hemmed us in with a couple icing and we defended hard and I thought that kind of took a little wind out of our sails in the overtime, but I alluded to this when we played UConn on Saturday night and we took three icings on a minute and a half stretch because we were tired and had to defend and that happened again tonight and you have to find a way to survive that. You've got to show mental toughness. You have to have resiliency. This time of year you don't win games without those characteristics. We've shown those characteristics really since Christmas break and I couldn't be prouder of our team. Obviously our goalie was great in overtime. These two guys to the left of me (Patrick Curry and Jordan Greenway) competed hard from the drop of the puck, as did everyone else. And just really a great hockey game. Played a great opponent. That's a great hockey team there. People aren't surprised when its BC BU Hockey East semifinal and it goes to overtime. We're fortunate and very excited for tomorrow night.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY FORWARD PATRICK CURRY

On his overtime goal...

I was coming off the bench. It was a good change in the offensive zone. I went to support Shane Bowers for a cycle. I saw him coming around the net so I decided to jump back in front of the net and he stuffed it and luckily it went into the back of the net.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY FORWARD JORDAN GREENWAY

On being one game away from a championship...

It's been fun. It's not a situation we want to be in, but I think our team has done everything in their power to continue to fight and do what we have to do to continue to play and get to the postseason. I couldn't be more happy for the guys. We've been battling for a while. To go out there and face the adversity we did tonight and to come out with a win like we did in overtime – that's a really good team. I give them a lot of credit but I thought we battled hard tonight. Overall the whole process has been fun. It's been a fun year.

QUINN

On his team's mindset...

Yeah, we don't want it to end, that's for sure. It's a great group to coach. I can't tell you how much fun I've had coaching this group. Incredibly likable, they work hard. We understand the situation we put ourselves in. I'm not going to lie, if you told me we'd be 20-13 and looking on the outside of the national tournament on March 16 I would've laughed. That's not what I expected. That's not what our team expected. But college hockey is hard. There's a lot of good teams in it and that's the situation we were in on January 6. Since then we righted the ship. One thing we talk about is the group that played tonight hasn't lost a game since January 6. The two games we lost [since then, Greenway] was gone for the Olympics. He's playing with such confidence. He's doing everything for us. So we feel good. Our goalie played great at key times tonight. To give up a goal that early in the game ... that's demoralizing and I thought we reacted that way on the bench. But we weathered the storm. I thought we started turning it on as the first period went on and then we give them a goal and they're up 2-0, and [BC goalie Joseph] Woll is in net, and it's the semifinals, BU-BC. But boy did we show some toughness and grit and resiliency to be sitting here now and being able to play tomorrow night.

HOCKEY EAST TOURNAMENT SEMIFINAL POSTGAME QUOTES
BOSTON COLLEGE EAGLES VS BOSTON UNIVERSITY TERRIERS
Friday, March 16, 2018

BOSTON COLLEGE HEAD COACH JERRY YORK

Opening Statement....

From my perspective from my viewpoint you know that is a classic rivalry game BC-BU played at high stakes in a major venue. Very proud of how our team played. Seen it get better as the game went on I thought we had some terrific chances especially in OT there and then we had a chance and had to kill a penalty in OT and we did a remarkable job in that area. The OT goal we looked at it real quick it was a turnover on the left side or down behind the net and Shane Bowers made a really good play to come out and control the puck and try and get it across. I didn't see who the goal on the far side. I thought Dave Cotton had an outstanding game from our viewpoint here from my viewpoint. You know he's hurt in OT and came back and played his heart out. Proud of our guys. It was a little different than last year at this time that we knew we weren't going to the NCAA tournament with a loss. Still, a lot to shake out here still an opportunity for us to play. Which I would love to but I wasn't willing to shake anyone's hand. We had one senior. When you lose a game to that finishes your season its tough. I think we can still shake this thing out a lot of stuff going on right now as far as us getting in the last few spots.

On Boston University scoring so quickly to tie the game after BC took a 3-2 lead...

Well, you think that would be a momentum shift, but I think we played our best hockey late. I thought it was outstanding regarding creating offensive chances and limiting theirs. I think I looked up and it was 10 to 1 in shots in OT in favor of us. Give credit to BU they bounced back from a one-goal deficit, but as far as our psyche and as far as our mental attitude for the rest of the game I thought it got better and we reacted well. The game was tied up, and we played to win the game and didn't sit back, so that was good on our behalf I thought.
