MAINE TRIO NETS MONTHLY HONORS

Explosive specialty teams play highlights Maine's 6-0 start

The loss of its top five scorers from last season has not seemed to hinder Maine much. Todd Jackson is off to an incredible start as the team's new finisher – he had a pair of goals in three of the first six games and is leading a counterpunching penalty kill.

CCM Player of the Month
Todd Jackson – Maine
Senior Forward; Cortland, NY

Jackson averaged better than one goal per game in the month of October, and amazingly did most of his scoring while short-handed. Four of his seven markers came on the penalty kill, while the unit allowed just three opposing power play goals over six games. Jackson also scored two power play goals and three game-winners, and finished the month at +8.

 Ben Walter – UML (So. F) 6GP: 8G - 2A - 10pts - +3

ITECH Goaltenders of the Month

Frank Doyle – Maine
Senior; Guelph, ON

Jim Howard – Maine
Sophomore; Ogdensburg, NY

Jim Howard opened the month with a 4-0 shut-out victory over two-time defending NCAA champ Minnesota and he and his partner, Frank Doyle, have not let up since. They posted identical numbers in the month of October and are thus a perfect selection to share Hockey East's monthly goaltending award.

Superskills Hockey Rookie of the Month

Jacob Micflikier – New Hampshire
Freshman Forward; Winnipeg, MB

He started his rookie season quietly enough, but ended his first month in Hockey East with a roar as loud as any Wildcat's – four goals and one assist to lead a 9-2 romp of Union. Added to the two-goal, one-assist breakout performance he enjoyed against Canisius, Micflikier put up six goals and two assists in his first five games. Even more impressively, the rookie led a talented UNH lineup in plus-minus at +8 for October.

Runner-up:
 Michel Leveille – Maine (So. F) 6GP: 0G - 8A - 8pts - +5
