WEEKLY RELEASE #8

FRIARS TOPPLE UNH WITH SEVEN-GOAL OUTBURST

Maine back in groove with two league victories at home

It's still early in the season, but the games count the same.

Boston College and UNH staged an incredible battle last Wednesday in front of over 10,000 fans at the Verizon Wireless Arena in Manchester, N.H., and each came away with a 2-2 tie and a vital point in the standings. Goaltending was on display as UNH's Mike Ayers made 34 saves, six in overtime. BC's Matti Kaltainen only needed to stop 19, but that included a great save on a 2-on-1 in OT.

Providence solved Ayers, following three incredible outings for the senior stopper, by getting six goals by him en route to a 7-4 victory on Friday. CCM Player of the Week Torry Gajda and teammate Jonathan Goodwin each had three points in the win. The Friars weren't so fortuitous on Saturday, however, surrendering a 3-2 loss to Massachusetts. Gabe Winer had 27 saves for UMass in the win and it marked the team's seventh straight road victory. The Minutemen lost 4-1 at home vs. Boston College on Friday as BC defenseman John Adams picked up two goals and finished with a +3 on the game.

Following Hockey East losses at Boston College and UNH, which soured a 7-0 start, Maine has rebounded by posting back-to-back league wins at home vs. Northeastern and UMass Lowell. Rookie forward Luciano Aquino lived up to the family name (his older brother Anthony was a standout at Merrimack) by being named the first star in each game. He had two goals in Friday's 5-2 win over Northeastern and set up two more in Sunday's 4-0 white-wash of Lowell. Frank Doyle made 22 saves in the Black Bear net to shut down Ben Walter and the River Hawk offense. Senior blueliner Prestin Ryan was +5 on the weekend and pitched in a goal.

Merrimack earned an important point Friday vs. BU, getting 35 saves from Casey Guenther and two assists from defenseman Bryan Schmidt en route to a 2-2 tie. Determined to win the weekend, the Terriers struck in a big way in Saturday's rematch, unloading for four first period goals that yielded a 6-1 triumph. Ken Magowan scored twice for BU while Stephen Siwec made 30 stops in net. It was Siwec's first game action in almost a year.

TEAM NOTES

Boston College: BC has outshot its opponent in each of 10 games this season, compiling an outstanding aggregate margin of 322-200.

Boston University: Sean Fields missed his first action in almost a year when he did not play vs. Merrimack on Saturday. The senior goalie had played every minute of the Terriers' previous 35 games ... Ken Magowan's power play goal Saturday was just the Terriers' third of the season and ended an 0-for-22 stretch.

University of Maine: Brent Shephard scored his first career goal Sunday against UMass-Lowell ... The line of Luciano Aquino, Derek Damon and Colin Shields had a great first weekend together, as they connected for three goals and six assists to lead two Maine victories.

University of Massachusetts: UMass' 8-2 start equals its best since the program was resurrected in 1993-94. That season, UMass opened at 8-2, but it was mostly against D-III opponents ... Friday's crowd of 7,113 was the largest hockey crowd in Mullins Center history. Since the start of last season, five of the Mullins Center all-time top 10 single-game attendance totals have been logged ... Defenseman Thomas Pöck contributed six goals and three assists vs. Providence over the past six games of the series. He already has five power play goals this season and has a six-game point streak.

UMass Lowell: Almost three years to the day after Maine last shut out UMass Lowell, the Black Bears did it again with a 4-0 win on Sunday, November 16. Maine's last shutout of Lowell came on November 17, 2000. The 2000-01 campaign was also the last time UML was shut out twice in one season, as UML was blanked back in October at Alaska Anchorage. UML has never been shut out three times in one season ... Kim Brandvold and Josh Notini both scored their first career goals on Tuesday vs. Bentley.

Merrimack College: With a pair of assists on Friday night, sophomore defenseman Bryan Schmidt now has five assists in five career games played against BU ... Merrimack went 14-for-16 on the penalty kill over two games against BU over the weekend. Over the past five games, the Warrior PK unit is 24-for-27 (.888) ... The Merrimack sophomore class has accounted for 29 of the teams 57 points this season ... Senior defenseman Tony Johnson has assisted on four of the team's last six goals.

University of New Hampshire: Freshman forward Jacob Micflikier is the only first-year Wildcat to play in all nine games this season ... Senior forward Steve Saviano has scored 10 goals this season in just nine games and he has already surpassed his goal total from all of last season (9 goals in 42 games) ... UNH remains undefeated at the Verizon Wireless Arena with a 2-0-2 record in four games ... 19 of UNH's 42 goals this year have come in the third period.

Northeastern University: Senior captain Brian Tudrick scored his first career short-handed goal on Friday ... Jason Guerriero notched his 11th career power-play goal. Eleven of his 19 career goals have come with a man-advantage ... NU will host a televised game vs. UNH on Friday. NU hasn't lost to UNH at home since Jan. 29, 1999, a span of nearly five years.

Providence College: Torry Gajda (3 goals, 3 assists) and Jonathan Goodwin (2 goals, 4 assists) each have tallied six points in the last four games ... Sophomore Bobby Goepfert was dealt his first loss of the season with a 3-2 defeat vs. UMass Saturday. He is now 6-1-1 ... Providence is 7-0-4 in their last 11 road games, a stretch that will be tested when they play at Boston College on Friday. The game will be televised live on CSTV ... Rookie Bill McCreary scored his first career goal with an empty-netter vs. UNH Friday.

WHO'S HOT

• Michel Leveille, Maine (So. F; Levis, QC) – Averaging one assist per game.

• The Eaves Brothers – Senior Ben and sophomore Patrick have ignited the BC offense with a combined 19 points in 10 games.

• BC penalty kill – The Eagles have killed 47 of 51 opposing power plays this season (92.2 percent) and killed two 5-on-3 disadvantages in a 4-1 win at UMass.

• UMass on the road – The Minutemen have won an amazing seven straight road games dating back to last season. Gabe Winer is 7-0 with a 1.86 GAA and a .923 save percentage in those games.

• UNH power play – Eighteen of UNH's 42 goals have come on the power play. The Wildcats lead the nation with a 31 percent success rate.

ITECH THREE STARS

As part of a long-term agreement between Hockey East and ITECH, SIDs and media will designate ITECH "Three Stars of The Game" in each of the 108 Hockey East league games. The player earning the most points over the course of the season will be recognized at the Hockey East championship banquet at season's end. The leaders to date:

TOP FAN CONTEST

As part of the celebration of its 20th anniversary season, the Hockey East Association is launching a promotional contest to identify its top fan. To make a nomination for oneself or another, an individual must submit an essay of no more than 300 words describing why the nominee should be considered. The winners will be announced in late February. Each winner will receive two tickets to each night of the Hockey East championship tournament at the FleetCenter along with hotel accommodations for two at the Royal Sonesta Hotel, the official headquarters of the Hockey East tournament.
