WEEKLY RELEASE #9

UMASS LOWELL TAKES THREE OF FOUR POINTS VS. BU Minutemen continue march with 1-1 tie vs. 4th ranked Maine

One third of the way through the season, four teams have made similar early claims to Hockey East's 20th anniversary title.

As expected, preseason favorite Boston College and two-time defending champ UNH are both in the mix. BC rebounded from a 3-3 tie vs. eighth-place Merrimack last Tuesday to post a 7-4 win over Providence Friday. Tony Voce had a power play hat trick to lead a man-advantage unit that struck five times vs. the Friars. New Hampshire overcame a 2-0 first period deficit to record a 3-2 victory at Northeastern Friday, the first for the 'Cats at Matthews Arena since January of 1999. The Wildcats completed the weekend sweep with a 5-2 win at home on Saturday.

Despite losing its top five scorers from last season, the University of Maine also appears to be in good shape. The Black Bears are one of only two Division I squads to have reached the 10-win plateau already, and hold a strong 5-2-1 league record, with their only losses coming vs. BC and UNH. Their first tie of the season came Friday at ninth-ranked UMass, the team that ousted them in the quarterfinals of last year's Hockey East playoffs. The Minutemen are not only officially on the map now, but they are legitimate early season contenders for the Hockey East title. They are tied for first place with Maine and UNH, with Boston College, still undefeated in league play, right behind.

The UMass Lowell River Hawks have put last season's frustrations far behind them and stand at a solid 3-3-1 in league play which includes a win and a tie vs. Boston University this past weekend. Junior Chris Davidson had 28 saves in each game and has a 2.69 GAA and a .910 save percentage in league play, huge improvements over last year's numbers.

After posting an impressive 3-3 tie at Boston College, Merrimack split a weekend set at home vs. Bemidji State. Sophomore defenseman Bryan Schmidt scored an overtime goal late Sunday to put the exclamation point on a four-point week. Teammate Brent Gough had two point in each of the three games and is now tied for sixth in the league in overall scoring with 13 points in 14 games played.
