WEEKLY RELEASE #22

BC WINS 10TH TITLE WITH WIN AND TIE VS. MAINE Guerriero's five-point night makes him first Husky to win scoring title

The verdict is in. And for the third straight year, it's Boston College.

BC took three of four possible points in a two-game set vs. Maine to clinch its record 10th Hockey East regular season title outright, one point ahead of UNH and Boston University. Down 2-0 in Saturday's game and resigned to sharing the title with BU and UNH, BC rallied back and scored the tying goal with 16 seconds remaining courtesy of Peter Harrold. BU posted a win and a tie vs. UNH on the week, and held the tiebreaker advantage vs. the Wildcats, thus clinching the No. 2 seed. It was the closest finish in Hockey East history for the top four seeds, who all finished within four points of each other.

Northeastern's Jason Guerriero exploded for five points on Saturday night vs. UMass to win the Hockey East scoring race with 34 points, four ahead of three other players. He is the first Northeastern player to win the Hockey East scoring title. Teammate Mike Morris had six points in the same game, becoming the first Hockey East player with six in a game since former Eagle Ben Eaves did it, also against UMass, on Jan. 31, 2003.

BC senior Matti Kaltiainen secured the goaltending crown for the second time in his career with a 1.81 GAA, just ahead of rookie teammate Cory Schneider. Fellow Eagles Patrick Eaves and Ryan Shannon finished tied for second in the league scoring race with 30 points each, and shared the ITECH Three Stars Award. Shannon led the Eagles vs. Maine this weekend with two goals and three assists.

Providence entered the playoffs on a winning note, getting an overtime goal from James Pemberton Saturday at UMass Lowell to post a 3-2 win. The Friars have now won three straight and will pit that modest streak against BU in the quarterfinals. The most familiar playoff rivals in the league, BU and Providence have met 18 times in the postseason, and each has won nine games.

TEAM NOTES

Boston College: The Eagles clinched their third straight Hockey East regular season title. It is the third time BC has won three regular season titles in a row. BC has won or shared the regular season crown in 10 of the league's 21 seasons ... The only teams that BC did not win the season series against were Providence (tied 1-1-1) and UMass Lowell (lost 1-2).

Boston University: This is the sixth time the Terriers have finished second in Hockey East. They have finished first six times as well ... The Terriers finished the regular season undefeated (18-0-3) when leading after two periods ... BU and Providence will face off in the quarterfinal round for the fifth time in seven years. In Hockey East tournament history, they have split the all-time series 9-9 ... Rookie Peter MacArthur ended a goal-scoring drought Saturday at UNH. He had 11 goals in his first 19 games but none in his last 14.

University of Maine: Maine is 65-0-6 when leading after two periods over the last three seasons ... Maine is the fourth seed in the Hockey East Tournament for only the second time. The last time they were a No. 4 seed was in the 1999-2000 season and they advanced to win the championship ... Rookie defenseman Travis Ramsey scored his first career goal Saturday at BC.

University of Massachusetts: Kevin Jarman is enjoying a modest four-game point streak ... Defenseman Jeff Lang's goal on Saturday was his first since Nov. 23 at Vermont ... Defenseman Marvin Degon had his seventh power play goal of the season Saturday, ranking him second nationally among blueliners ... Stephen Werner has scored a goal in three consecutive games. He leads the nation with four short-handed goals.

UMass Lowell: Elias Godoy has scored a point in 12 of his last 13 games, with eight goals and eight assists in that span.

Merrimack College: The Warriors scored first for the first time in 10 games on Thursday, but ultimately lost 5-1 to UMass Lowell. Casey Guenther made 42 saves for the Warriors ... Merrimack finished the season with a team-record 14-game losing streak and a league-record 15-game losing streak in league play.

University of New Hampshire: Justin Aikins became the third active Wildcat on the century club list when he potted his 100th career point Saturday vs. BU ... BU is the only Hockey East team with a winning record (6-4-4) at the Whittemore Center ... UNH outscored their opponents 36-13 in the third period in 24 league games this year.

Northeastern University: Jason Guerriero leads all Hockey East players with 48 points overall. The last Husky with more points in a season was Harry Mews, who had 59 total points in 1989-90 ... NU's eight-goal game on Saturday was its best offensive outburst of the season. The Huskies' previous high was six in a 6-0 win vs. Providence on Jan. 15 at Matthews Arena. The last time NU scored more goals was Oct. 11, 2002 when the Huskies beat UConn 10-1.

Providence College: The Friars have won three consecutive games for the first time this season ... After going 0-11-1 in its first 12 road games, Providence has won back-to-back road contests ... Junior Nate Meyers has 14 points (six goals, eight assists) this season, nearly double the eight points he tallied over his first two seasons.

WHO'S HOT

- Sean Collins, UNH (Sr. F; Reading, MA) – Has five goals and six assists over the last eight games.
- Marvin Degon, UMass (Jr. D; Millbury, MA) – Has two goals and three assists in the last four games.
- Ryan Shannon, BC (Sr. F; Darien, CT) – Has three goals and six assists over a four-game point streak.
- John Yaros, UML (Jr. G; Bayside, NY) – Has posted a 3-1 record with a 1.00 GAA and a .966 save percentage over four starts since returning from injury.
- UMass Lowell's Penalty Kill – The unit has allowed just one goal in the last seven games, successfully killing 26 of the last 27 opposing chances.
