

LEN CEGLARSKI SPORTSMANSHIP AWARD

This award, named in honor of retired Boston College Head Coach Len Ceglarski, is given by the league to one player who has consistently demonstrated superior conduct and sportsmanship on the ice. The directors of Hockey East established the Len Ceglarski Sportsmanship Award in 1992. Each school nominates one player. The award is then voted upon by head coaches, sports information directors and league officials.

Joe Gambardella (UML) accepts the Ceglarski Sportsmanship Award from Commissioner Joe Bertagna.

CHARLES HOLT TEAM SPORTSMANSHIP AWARD

Hockey East proudly recognizes an entire team for its sportsmanlike play with the Charles E. Holt Sportsmanship Award, named after the former University of New Hampshire head coach. This award is given to the team which receives the lowest average penalty minutes per game over the course of regular season Hockey East play. The Team Sportsmanship Award was established by the league's directors in 1992 and was renamed to honor Holt in 1998. The award is presented in the form of a shadow box with etched glass depicting the image of New Hampshire's legendary coach. In the 2013-14 season, the University of New Hampshire set a Hockey East record by averaging just 7.8 penalty minutes per game and won the Charlie Holt Team Sportsmanship Award for the ninth time.
