

INDIVIDUAL HOCKEY EAST AWARDS

CAMMI GRANATO PLAYER OF THE YEAR

The Warrior Cammi Granato Player of the Year Award, renamed in 2008 to honor former Providence College superstar Cammi Granato, is awarded annually by the head coaches to a player who has demonstrated the most superior play and leadership for her team. Granato had a legendary career, establishing many scoring records for the Friars (139 goals in 99 games). She captured ECAC Player of the Year honors from 1991-93, while leading the team to back-to-back conference titles in 1992 and 1993. A 15-year member of the U.S. Women's National Team, Granato is the program's all-time scoring leader. She achieved international fame by captaining Team USA to the gold medal at the 1998 Olympic Winter Games.

Watts had a phenomenal rookie season, leading the country in scoring with a line of 42-40-82 in 38 games for the Hockey East regular season champions. Her 42 goals were also the best in the country. In addition, her 2.16 points per game was best in the NCAA and her 10 power play goals tied for best in the nation.

The first underclassman to ever win the Patty Kazmaier Memorial Award was the nation's leading scorer with 82 points, and found the scoresheet in 32-of-34 regular-season games this season. She recorded multiple points in 25 games, including 11 multi-goal games, and tied the Hockey East single-season records for goals (30) and points (55). In addition to setting the Hockey East freshman points, goals and assists records, Watts also achieved the second highest single-season point total in Boston College history.

The 18-year-old was awarded with the Cammi Granato Award as Hockey East's Player of the Year, as well as the Rookie of the Year award. In addition, she was honored with the Hockey East Three Stars Award and named to the Hockey East All-Rookie Team.

Earlier this season, she was selected as the Hockey East Player of the Month for October, as well as Hockey East Rookie of the Month and American Hockey Coaches Association Rookie of the Month three times each (October, November, January). Watts was also a two-time Hockey East Player of the Week and a seven-time conference Rookie of the Week.

Player of the Year Award History

Season	Player	Pos.
2002-03	Jen Huggon, UNH	G
2003-04	Carolyn Gordon, UNH	F
	Chanda Gunn, NU	G
2004-05	Stephanie Jones, UNH	F
	Karen Thatcher, PC	F
2005-06	Sadie Wright-Ward, UNH	F
2006-07	Kelli Stack, BC	F
2007-08	Dominique Thibault, UConn	F
2008-09	Kelli Stack, BC	F
2009-10	Kelly Paton, UNH	F
	Florence Schelling, NU	G
2010-11	Kelli Stack, BC	F
2011-12	Florence Schelling, NU	G
2012-13	Alex Carpenter, BC	F
2013-14	Sarah Lefort, BU	F
2014-15	Alex Carpenter, BC	F
2015-16	Kendall Coyne, NU	F
2016-17	Megan Keller, BC	D
2017-18	Daryl Watts, BC	F

Rookie of the Year Award History

Season	Player	Pos.
2002-03	Lindsay Hansen, UNH	F
2003-04	Sonny Watrous, PC	F
2004-05	Jaclyn Hawkins, UConn	F
2005-06	Samantha Faber, UNH	F
2006-07	Kelli Stack, BC	F
2007-08	Jenn Wakefield, UNH	F
2008-09	Genevieve Lacasse, PC	G
2009-10	Kristina Lavoie, UNH	F
2010-11	Marie-Philip Poulin, BU	F
2011-12	Kendall Coyne, NU	F
2012-13	Haley Skarupa, BC	F
2013-14	Andie Anastos, BC	F
2014-15	Victoria Bach, BU	F
2015-16	Makenna Newkirk, BC	F
2016-17	Whitney Dove, PC	F
	Tereza Vanisova, ME	F
2017-18	Daryl Watts, BC	F

PRO AMBITIONS ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

Watts had a phenomenal rookie season, leading the country in scoring with a line of 42-40-82 in 38 games for the Hockey East regular season champions. Her 42 goals were also the best in the country. In addition, her 2.16 points per game was best in the NCAA and her 10 power play goals tied for best in the nation.

The first underclassman to ever win the Patty Kazmaier Memorial Award was the nation's leading scorer with 82 points, and found the scoresheet in 32-of-34 regular-season games this season. She recorded multiple points in 25 games, including 11 multi-goal games, and tied the Hockey East single-season records for goals (30) and points (55). In addition to setting the Hockey East freshman points, goals and assists records, Watts also achieved the second highest single-season point total in Boston College history.

The 18-year-old was awarded with the Cammi Granato Award as Hockey East's Player of the Year, as well as the Rookie of the Year award. In addition, she was honored with the Hockey East Three Stars Award and named to the Hockey East All-Rookie Team.

Earlier this season, she was selected as the Hockey East Player of the Month for October, as well as Hockey East Rookie of the Month and American Hockey Coaches Association Rookie of the Month three times each (October, November, January). Watts was also a two-time Hockey East Player of the Week and a seven-time conference Rookie of the Week.

Coach of the Year Award History

Season	Coach
2002-03	Brian McCloskey, UNH
2003-04	Joy Woog, NU
2004-05	Brian McCloskey, UNH
	Tom Mutch, BC
2005-06	Brian McCloskey, UNH
2006-07	Tom Mutch, BC
2007-08	Brian Durocher, BU
2008-09	Brian McCloskey, UNH
2009-10	Bob Deraney, PC
2010-11	Bob Deraney, PC
2011-12	Dave Flint, NU
	Maria Lewis, Maine
2012-13	Katie King Crowley, BC
2013-14	Katie King Crowley, BC
	Jim Plumer, UVM
2014-15	Katie King Crowley, BC
2015-16	Katie King Crowley, BC
2016-17	Bob Deraney, PC
2017-18	Richard Reichenbach, ME

COACH OF THE YEAR

This award is bestowed annually to a head coach who is considered to have demonstrated the highest number of significant accomplishments over the course of the season as voted by the conference's head coaches. Providence College's Deraney wins the award for the third time.

Reichenbach lead the Maine Black Bears to a 19-14-5 overall record and a 11-9-4 mark in Women's Hockey East regular season play. It was the team's first winning season since 2011-12 and just its third winning campaign overall (2005-06). In both previous winning years, Maine captured 17 wins, the most-ever by a Black Bear squad prior to this season. Reichenbach guided his team to the stingiest team defense in Women's Hockey East play, allowing just 650 shots on net in 24 league games, an average of 27.08 per game, and the second-best team goals against average at 2.17.

The Black Bears allowed the second-fewest goals against in conference action, giving up only 52 to opposing offenses. Additionally, Reichenbach's team allowed only one short-handed goal against, the lowest number among all Hockey East teams, and the second-fewest power-play goals against with 12. On February 25, his team completed a come-from-behind victory after being down, 3-0, to earn its first-ever Women's Hockey East Tournament series win and advance to the semifinals. The two playoff wins were also the first-ever for the Maine program.

