Northeastern's Clairmont Suspended One Game

WAKEFIELD, Mass. - Hockey East has issued a one-game suspension to Northeastern University sophomore forward Taytum Clairmont as a result of a checking major called at 19:51 of the third period in last Friday's game at Boston College. Clairmont will be ineligible to play in this Friday night's game at Boston University. She will be eligible to return for Saturday night's home game vs. Boston University, the final game of the regular season for both schools.
