Krizova Named Warrior Player of the Month

Boston College's Lonergan Tapped Top Rookie; Bugalski Claims Best Goalie

Warrior Hockey Player of the Month Denisa Krizova - Northeastern

Junior Forward; Horni Cerekev, Czech Republic

Denisa Krizova paced all of Hockey East in scoring during the months of September and October, accumulating 14 points through 10 games. The junior forward found the back of the net six times for the Huskies, including once on the power play and once short handed, while also leading the conference with eight assists. Krizova also recorded at least a point in each of the nine October games in which she appeared.

WARRIOR

Pro Ambitions Rookie of the Month Caitrin Lonergan - Boston College

Forward; Roslindale, Massachusetts

Caitrin Lonergan racked up 11 points in her first month of NCAA play, ranking second among all first-year skaters in the nation. Her six goals were the most in the country for any freshman player, while she paced all Hockey East rookies in point-getting, and tied for third among all conference players. She registered at least a point in eight of 10 games the Eagles played to begin the year, including two multi-point outings. On the power play, her three markers rank second nationally while she has won 84 faceoffs, the most of any freshman in the NCAA.
