WOMEN'S LEAGUE

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: NOVEMBER 18, 2002

WEEKLY RELEASE #7

HOCKEY EAST TEAMS GO 9-3 IN NON-CONFERENCE WEEK BC, UNH, Providence contribute two victories each

The Women's Hockey East Association put a stamp on the national scene this past weekend, recording nine wins to offset just three losses against non-conference foes.

Most prominent of those was a sweep for New Hampshire (now 9-1-1 overall) against visiting Princeton, one of the ECAC's better programs. Player of the Week Carolyn Gordon had both UNH goals in Saturday's dramatic 2-1 overtime win and contributed another in Sunday's rematch, which the Wildcats won much more easily, 7-3. Chandy Kaip led the offense in Sunday's game with her first career hat trick to go with one assist.

Boston College sophomore Lindsey Bazzone shared Player of the Week honors with Gordon, posting back-to-back two goal games as Boston College exploded for 11 goals over two victories. Lisa Davis allowed just one goal against visiting Quinnipiac Tuesday but was upstaged by teammate Alison Quandt, who recorded a shutout Sunday against RPI.

Providence was also impressive, gaining two close wins at Ohio State (4-2) and Findlay (1-0). Jenn Butsch and Rush Zimmerman had two goals each against the OSU Buckeyes, who are coached by former Friar bench boss Jackie Barto. PC's Darlene Stephenson had the only goal for either team in Sunday's contest at Findlay.

Findlay was also shut out by Connecticut, who received 33 saves from rookie goalie Kaitlyn Shain. Northeastern split the weekend at Niagara, recovering from a 3-2 loss to post a 4-1 victory. At Quinnipiac, Maine split identical 2-0 victories with its host.

TEAM NOTES

Boston College: Thia Connolly had a goal in each game last week, both BC victories ... The Eagles outscored their two opponents last week by a total of 11 to 1.

University of Connecticut: Angie Wallace had the game-winning goal at Findlay, her second in four wins for the Huskies.

University of Maine: The Black Bear offense continued its recent struggle, producing only two goals in two games at Quinnipiac. Maine has scored just three goals in the last six games ... Karen Droog scored her 50th career goal in Friday's 2-0 win at Quinnipiac.

University of New Hampshire: Annie Fahlenbock scored UNH's first short-handed goal of the season in Sunday's 7-3 win over Princeton. The Wildcats have not allowed a short-handed goal yet ... The sweep of Princeton lifted UNH's home record against the Tigers to 19-0 all-time ... Jen Huggon played her 100th game Saturday and needs just 11 more to pass former teammate Alicia Roberts for the No. 1 spot on the all-time UNH list.

Northeastern University: The Huskies have killed off 14 straight opposing power plays. They broke an 0-for-13 streak of their own with a power play goal to open Saturday's 4-1 win at Niagara.

Providence College: Saturday's 4-2 win at Ohio State was the Friars' first triumph over the Buckeyes and their first against former head coach Jackie Barto. Barto compiled 70 wins in four seasons at Providence.
