FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: DECEMBER 31, 2003

NORTHEASTERN'S GUNN NAMED PLAYER OF THE MONTH
Maine duo nets goaltender, rookie awards

Look out, Hockey East opponents – Chanda Gunn is back. After missing seven games due to injury, the perennial Kazmaier Award candidate is back between the pipes at Northeastern and looks like she was never gone.

TPS Player of the Month
Chanda Gunn – Northeastern
Senior Goaltender; Huntington Beach, CA

Gunn, a familiar name on both the Patty Kazmaier and Hockey Humanitarian ballots, missed most of November due to injury but has returned with a vengeance. She stopped 94 of 107 shots faced in her first four games back for a save percentage of .931 to complement a miniscule goals-against-average of 1.69.

Runner-up:
 Sonia Corriveau, Maine (Fr. F) – 4GP: 5G - 1A - 6pts

ITECH Goaltender of the Month
Lara Smart – Univ. of Maine
Senior; Airdrie, AB

Head-to-head against Player of the Month Chanda Gunn, Smart barely won the battle, preserving a 2-1 win at home following a 1-1 tie vs. Gunn and the Huskies one day prior. Seeing a huge amount of playing time in her senior season, she is the key component for a Maine squad that is threatening the establishment, having started the Hockey East season at 4-1-1.

ITECH Rookie of the Month
Sonia Corriveau – Univ. of Maine
Freshman Forward; Rouyn-Noranda, QC

Twice named Player of the Week in December, Corriveau has exploded offensively, netting big goals in key situations. She scored two of Maine's three goals in a vital home series against Hockey East rival Northeastern, pacing her squad to a three-point weekend. She added three more goals in a road set at Union and finished the month with five goals in only four games played.

Runner-up:
 Bridgitte Laflamme, Maine (Fr. F) – 4GP: 1G - 5A - 6pts
