Hockey East Unveils International Streaming Information

First Of Its Kind Arrangement Brings Hockey East Worldwide

AMESBURY, Mass. - The Hockey East Association announced today details regarding streaming information for international audiences, providing fans outside the United States a first-of-its-kind viewing option for the league. Hockey East previously announced multi-year partnerships with ESPN, ESPN+, and NESN for fans in the U.S.

International audiences will be able to view all men's and women's home games throughout the season through its international portal via Stretch Internet at <https://portal.stretchinternet.com/hockeyeast>. Subscriptions to the service are available for $9.99 USD per month or $4.99 USD for individual games.

Fans in the United States can catch all Hockey East home games on ESPN+, available for $9.99 per month.

For more information and links to watch each game, visit the Watch tab on HockeyEastOnline.com

About Hockey East

The Hockey East Association is an 11-team Division I college men's hockey conference founded in 1984 and a 10-team Division I women's league which began play in 2002-03. The men's league has won 10 NCAA championships in the past 27 years, most recently in 2021. Since 1999, Hockey East has won eight men's NCAA Championships with 17 NCAA Championship Game appearances, while placing 28 teams in the Frozen Four and 74 teams in the NCAA Tournament. Overall, Hockey East has sent 121 teams to the men's NCAA Tournament since its inaugural season, more than any other conference in that span. Hockey East is home to 11 Hobey Baker winners and four Patty Kazmaier winners.
