Cole Hutson Claims Hockey East Player of the Month

Final Accolades for Rookie, Defender, Goalie of the Month Awarded

HOCKEY EAST PLAYER OF THE MONTH

Cole Hutson - Boston University (Fr., D; North Barrington, Ill.)

No player in the NCAA had more points than Hutson, who led the country in points per game with 15 in just eight contests. His play propelled BU into the national title game after six points (2g, 4a) in the Toledo Regional where he was named Most Outstanding Player. He had an assist in each Frozen Four game to end the year on a five-game point streak and took home the Tim Taylor Award as national rookie of the year.

Runner-Up - Joey Muldowney, UConn
