JUST LIKE OLD TIMES
- BU and Maine are facing off as top-10 teams for the third time this season.
- The Terriers were No. 8 and the Black Bears were No. 9 when the teams met for a weekend series at Agganis on Nov. 17-18.
- That November series was the first time the teams had met as top-10 foes since Maine earned a 5-3 win in the 2012 Hockey East semifinals.
- Since the start of the 1995-96 season, the longtime rivals have met as top-10 foes on 20 different occasions, with BU owning a 7-8-5 record in those contests.

HISTORY WITH MAINE
- The Terriers and Black Bears have played 145 times since first meeting in the 1923-24 season and BU holds a 75-56-14 edge in the overall series.
- The Terriers are 10-2-15 in overtime games against Maine.
- BU has won nine of its last 10 games against the Black Bears.
- The Terriers' longest winning streak in the series was 11 games (Oct. 31, 1986 - Nov. 24 season) and BU holds a 75-56-14 edge in the overall series.
- The Terriers are 10-2-15 in overtime games against Maine.

SCOUTING THE BLACK BEARS
- Maine finished third in the league standings and earned a trip to TD Garden with a 5-0 quarterfinal win over sixth-seeded New Hampshire on Saturday.
- Freshman brothers Bradly and Josh Nadeau each recorded two goals and two assists against the Wildcats to share Hockey East Rookie of the Week honors.
- They also share the team lead with 45 points; Bradly (19g, 26a) leads Maine with 19 goals while Josh (18g, 27a) paces the Black Bears with 27 assists.
- Freshman goaltender Albin Bojja made his collegiate debut in relief duty at BU on Nov. 18, but he's since become the Black Bears' starting netminder.
- The reigning Hockey East Goaltender of the Week is 10-5-1 overall and 5-2-0 since Feb. 23, including an 18-save shutout of the Wildcats this past Saturday.
- He owns a 1.94 goals-against average and a .921 save percentage.
Last Time Against Maine

- BU earned a pair of home wins over then-No. 9 Maine, defeating the Black Bears, 3-2, on Nov. 17 before earning a 5-4 triumph the next night.
- On Friday, freshman Macklin Celebrini answered an early Maine goal with a power-play strike just 1:55 into the game to tie it at 1-1.
- Sophomore Ryan Greene and freshman Tom Willander added power-play goals 2:46 apart in the second stanza to give BU a 3-1 lead; Greene also recorded an assist.
- Sophomores Lane Hutson, Quinn Hutson and Jeremy Wilmer, freshman Shane Lachance and junior Jack Hughes each added one assist apiece.
- Junior Mathieu Caron made 29 saves on Friday and followed with a season-high 39-save performance the next night.
- Quinn Hutson scored two goals on Saturday while brother Lane added two assists and Celebrini collected three assists.
- Lachance, senior Luke Tuch and sophomore Devin Kaplan also lit the lamp on Saturday.
- Willander added a helper while Wilmer and Greene had the assists on Kaplan’s winner.

How Did BU Get to the Garden?

- BU scored three times in the second period to build a 3-0 lead they never relinquished, as it defeated seventh-seeded Northeastern, 4-2, on Saturday at Agganis.
- Sophomore Quinn Hutson, senior Luke Tuch and graduate captain Case McCarthy lit the lamp in the second stanza.
- Northeastern made it 3-2 with 4:51 remaining in regulation, but freshman Macklin Celebrini scored 26 seconds later to halt the comeback bid.
- Tuch had the primary helper on McCarthy’s third goal of the year to complete a two-point night while freshmen Jack Harvey and Tom Willander, sophomores Ryan Greene and Lane Hutson, junior Jack Hughes and senior Dylan Peterson added one assist apiece.
- Junior Mathieu Caron made 21 saves.

Another Ranked Win

- The Terriers improved to 11-5-2 against ranked foes this season after their victory over Northeastern.
- That includes a 7-3-1 record against top-10 opponents, with two of those three losses coming by just a goal.

Celebrini Takes Home Major Awards

- Freshman Macklin Celebrini was selected as both the Hockey East Rookie of the Year and the Hockey East Player of the Year.
- Celebrini is the fourth player in Hockey East history to earn both awards in the same season, joining former Terrier standout Jack Eichel (2014-15), Maine’s Paul Kariya (1992-93) and Boston College’s Brian Leetch (1986-87).
- He is the fifth different Terrier to be chosen as Hockey East Player of the Year, an award that BU has now claimed six times.
- In addition, this is the second straight year and 11th time overall that a Terrier has been named Hockey East Rookie of the Year.
- The lone unanimous Hockey East First Team All-Star, Celebrini was unanimously named to the league’s All-Rookie squad and also won the league’s scoring title and the Three Stars Award.
- In 23 Hockey East games, Celebrini led all skaters with 44 points (23g, 21a).
- His 23 goals is a single-season league record and he is the only rookie in Hockey East history to average at least one goal per game in league competition.
- Celebrini, the youngest player in college hockey at just 17 years old, ended the regular season as the nation’s leader with 1.69 points per game and was also second overall in goals (29) and points (54) entering the postseason.

Hutson, Celebrini Among Hobey 10

- Freshman Macklin Celebrini and sophomore Lane Hutson are two of the 10 finalists for the Hobey Baker Award.
- This marks the 18th time that a Terrier has been a finalist for the annual award.
- It’s also the fourth time in the past five years that a BU skater has earned this recognition, as Hutson was also a top-10 finalist last year.
- Hutson joined former Terrier defensemen David Farrance (2020, 2021) as the most recent BU standout to be a top-10 finalist in back-to-back years.
- Celebrini is just the third Terrier freshman to be selected in the Hobey Top 10, joining Hutson and 2015 winner Jack Eichel.
- This is the second straight year that Hutson was the only defenseman to be selected as a top-10 finalist.

Situational Records
FOUR TERRIERS NAMED ALL-STARS
- BU placed four players on Hockey East All-Star teams, as announced on Friday.
- Freshman Macklin Celebrini and sophomore Lane Hutson were first-team honorees, with Celebrini a unanimous selection.
- Freshman Tom Willander was a second-team choice while Mathieu Caron earned third-team accolades.
- This is the second straight year that four Terriers have been named Hockey East All-Stars and that at least two Terriers were named to the first team.
- Hutson is a repeat First Team All-Star while the other three all earned their respective honors in their first season in the league.
- Celebrini was also a unanimous selection to the Hockey East All-Rookie Team and won both the league’s scoring title and the Hockey East Three Stars Award.

MACKLIN MAGIC
- 17-year-old Macklin Celebrini enters this weekend as the nation’s leader in points per game (1.67).
- He is also second in the country with 30 goals and is third overall with 55 points.
- Celebrini is the only player since the 2014-15 season to have at least 20 goals and 20 assists, and the only NCAA freshman to notch 25 goals and 25 assists this year.
- Celebrini is one of just two rookies this season to have at least 20 goals and 20 assists, and the only NCAA freshman to record 25 goals and 25 assists in a single season, just the fourth rookie since 2002-03 to reach that milestone and only the fourth Hockey East freshman to accomplish that feat in the league’s 40-season history.
- He has notched a point in 12 of the last 13 games, including 13 points over his last six games.
- Celebrini is one of just two rookies this season to have at least 20 goals and 20 assists, and the only NCAA freshman to notch 25 goals and 25 assists this year.
- Celebrini is one of just five freshmen since 2005-06 to score 50 goals and 50 assists this year.
- In fact, Celebrini is one of just five freshmen to record 50 goals and 50 assists this season.
- He is the first Terrier to record 50 points in a season since Jack Eichel (71 points), Evan Rodrigues (61) and Danny O’Reagan (50) all achieved that feat during the 2014-15 season.
- He’s one of just 26 freshmen in the last 50 years to score 30 goals in a single season, just the fourth rookie since 2002-03 to reach that milestone and only the fourth Hockey East freshman to accomplish that feat in the league’s 40-season history.
- He has notched a point in 12 of the last 13 games, including 13 points over his last six games.
- Celebrini is one of just two rookies this season to have at least 20 goals and 20 assists, and the only NCAA freshman to notch 25 goals and 25 assists this year.
- Celebrini is one of just five freshmen since 2005-06 to score 25 goals and 25 assists this year.
- In fact, Celebrini is one of just five freshmen to record 50 goals and 50 assists this season.
- He is the first Terrier to record 50 points in a season since Jack Eichel (71 points), Evan Rodrigues (61) and Danny O’Reagan (50) all achieved that feat during the 2014-15 season.
- Hutson has averaged an incredible 1.28 points per game in his career, which is far and away best in college hockey.
- He is the fastest Terrier defenseman to reach that milestone since Dick Lamby did it in 25 games across two seasons (1976-77 and 1977-78).
- His hat trick on Nov. 4 against North Dakota was the first by a BU defenseman since David Farrance scored three times against Providence on Nov. 9, 2019.

TOM TERRIFIC
- Freshman Tom Willander led all Hockey East defenders in plus-minus, both overall (+24) and in league play (+17), and his plus-24 rating was tied for first among all freshmen defensemen in the country during the regular season.
- Willander was clearly the best freshman defenseman Hockey East, leading all of the league’s rookie blue liners in goals (4), assists (17) and points (21).
- In fact, only one other freshman defenseman in Hockey East got to 10 points.
- A silver medalist at World Juniors with Sweden, Willander with has been terrific down the stretch for BU, entering the postseason on a four-game point streak that includes a pair of two-assist efforts.
CARON SHINED IN FIRST LEAGUE SEASON
• Junior Mathieu Caron, a transfer from Brown, was fantastic in his first league campaign.
• No league goaltender played more minutes than Caron, who started all 34 regular-season games for the Terriers.
• He posted a .917 save percentage and a 2.30 goals-against average across those starts along with two shutouts.
• Within league play, he finished second in both save percentage (.924) and goals-against average (2.14).
• Caron ended the season with a 5-0-1 record in his last six starts, posting a .952 save percentage and a 1.34 GAA in that span.
• He was named Hockey East Goaltender of the Month for February, going 6-1-1 with a league-leading 2.01 goals-against average.
• Caron was third in Hockey East with 200 saves and a .926 save percentage, and he allowed just two goals or fewer in five of his eight starts.
• No other netminder in the country won as many games as Caron did in February.
• Within conference play, Caron led his peers in both save percentage (.944) and goals-against average (1.53), and he closed the month in style with a 23-save shutout against UConn on Feb. 24.
• He enters Friday with a .917 save percentage and a 2.29 GAA, having not allowed more than two goals in his last seven starts.
• He is 6-0-1 in that stretch, owning a .947 save percentage and a 1.43 GAA.

WEBBER NAMED BEST DEFENSIVE D-MAN
• Graduate student Cade Webber was named Hockey East Best Defensive Defenseman.
• Webber is the third Terrier to be chosen as the league’s top defensive defenseman joining Chris Dyment (2001-02) and Sean Sullivan (2006-07).
• Webber enjoyed his best season as a Terrier in 2023-24, highlighted by setting a new single-season NCAA record for blocked shots with 118, which eclipsed the old record of 112.
• He averaged an incredible 3.68 blocks per game, including seven at Providence the night he set the NCAA single-season record, and totaled seven games with six blocks.
• A native of Meadville, Pennsylvania, Webber is a career-best plus-16 this season, including a plus-9 rating in 24 league games.
• He notched five of his career-high six assists during Hockey East play and enters Friday with one goal and 15 assists for 16 points in 118 career games.
• Webber is also one of the Terriers’ top penalty killers and helped BU kill 25 straight penalties at one point this season.

NO SOPHOMORE SLUMPS
• All five Terrier sophomores are among the team’s top nine point producers this year.
• Not only that, they’ve combined for 326 points (107g, 219a) during their time here at BU.
• Lane Hutson leads that group with 44 points this season (12g, 32a), which ranks second overall on BU.
• Jeremy Wilmer is third with 36 points (4g, 30a), followed by Quinn Hutson (17g, 16a) in fourth, Ryan Greene (9g, 20a) in fifth and Devin Kaplan (5g, 15a) in ninth.
• Last season, all five players were among the Terriers’ top nine point producers, with all five recording at least 23 points.

TUCH NAMED PLAYER OF THE WEEK
• Senior Luke Tuch was named Hockey East Player of the Week on Monday.
• He was terrific in the Terriers’ 4-2 quarterfinal win over Northeastern.
• After he scored his ninth goal of the season with a nifty redirection at 13:40 of the second stanza to give BU a 2-0 lead, Tuch then provided the primary helper on the eventual game-winner just over four minutes later.
• Tuch led the Terriers with six shots on goal and finished as a plus-1.
• A native of Baldwinsville, New York, Tuch is enjoying a career year for the Terriers.
• He matched his career high from last season with nine goals and has set new career highs in games played (32) and points (37), scoring in the final seconds.
• Prior to opening the scoring in Saturday’s quarterfinal win, Hutson recorded his second hat trick of the season in the Terriers’ 6-1 win over Vermont on March 9.
• All three of Hutson’s goals against UVM came on the power play, as he gave BU a 2-0 lead in the first period before closing out the scoring in the final seconds.
• Hutson’s first hat trick also came at Aegagis, as he lit the lamp three times in a 6-1 win over UMass Lowell on Nov. 11.
• Hutson has been excellent as a sophomore, setting new career highs in goals (17), assists (16) and points (33).
• He enters the postseason on a five-game point streak, having notched six goals and two assists for eight points in that span.

QUINNING TIME
• Sophomore Quinn Hutson enters Friday having scored a goal in two straight and four of his last five games.
• Prior to opening the scoring in Saturday’s quarterfinal win, Hutson recorded his second hat trick of the season in the Terriers’ 6-1 win over Vermont on March 9.
• All three of Hutson’s goals against UVM came on the power play, as he gave BU a 2-0 lead in the first period before closing out the scoring in the final seconds.
• Hutson’s first hat trick also came at Aegagis, as he lit the lamp three times in a 6-1 win over UMass Lowell on Nov. 11.
• Hutson has been excellent as a sophomore, setting new career highs in goals (17), assists (16) and points (33).
• He enters the postseason on a five-game point streak, having notched six goals and two assists for eight points in that span.
PANDOLFO FASTEST TO 50
• Head coach Jay Pandolfo won his 50th and 51st games on Feb. 23 and 24.
• With a 6-1 victory at UConn on Feb. 23, Pandolfo became the fastest active men’s head coach to reach 50 career victories at their current school.
• He’s the third fastest coach in Terrier history to get to 50 wins.
• Jack Parker went 50-12-1 in his first 63 games while Harry Cleverly was 50-16-2 in his first 68 contests.
• Pandolfo enters Thursday at 54-19-2.

SUCCESS ON THE WORLD STAGE
• BU was the only school to boast a gold and a silver medalist at this year’s World Junior Championship, as sophomore Lane Hutson led the United States to a 6-2 win over freshman Tom Willander and host Sweden in the gold-medal game.
• Hutson, selected as both a tournament all-star and as one of his country’s top three players for the tournament, led all defensemen with six assists.
• Willander led Sweden as a plus-9, scoring one goal and adding two assists for three points during the tournament.
• That included the GWG against Canada to clinch first place in group play.
• Freshman Macklin Celebrini was fantastic for Canada, as the 17-year-old led his country with eight points (4g, 4a).
• Celebrini recorded five of those points (1g, 4a) in an impressive performance against Latvia in the preliminary round.
• Terriers have now combined to earn 34 medals at World Juniors, with Hutson becoming the 10th BU player to win gold.
• Hutson is also the fifth Terrier to medal twice at the tournament, as he won bronze with Team USA in 2023.
• Willander is the first European to bring a World Juniors medal back to BU.

IT'S BETWEEN THE BROTHERS, KAY
• BU boasts three sets of brothers on this year's team.
• Graduate student Case McCarthy will get to play with his younger brother, freshman Gavin McCarthy, this season.
• Case, who wore number two during his first four years at BU, now wears number seven while Gavin wears two.
• Sophomore Quinn Hutson will once again play with his younger brother and classmate Lane, while freshman Aiden Celebrini will skate with his younger brother and classmate Macklin.
• No other school in the NCAA has more sets of brothers on the same team as BU; Notre Dame also has three sets of brothers.

FAMILY TIES
• The significant family ties go beyond the three sets of brothers on the squad.
• Junior Tristan Amonte’s dad, Tony, skated two seasons at BU before playing 1,174 regular-season games in the NHL.
• Freshman Shane Lachance’s father, Scott, was teammates with Tony Amonte on the 1990-91 Terrier squad and went on to a 13-year NHL career.
• Lachance’s grandfather is legendary Terrier head coach Jack Parker.

YEAR TWO OF THE PANDOLFO ERA
• Jay Pandolfo is in his second season as the Terriers’ head coach.
• During his first year in charge, Pandolfo was named Hockey East Coach of the Year, New England Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the Spencer Penrose Award as the national coach of the year.
• He guided BU to the program’s 11th Hockey East regular-season title and its first since 2016-17 thanks to an 18-6-0 league record.
• He then followed that with the program’s 10th league tournament championship and first since 2018.
• Pandolfo became the third BU coach to win his NCAA Tournament debut, joining Harry Cleverly and David Quinn, as he guided BU to its first Frozen Four appearance since 2015.
• The Terriers went 29-11-0, including a 6-2-0 mark against top-10 foes, last year.
• Five freshmen all recorded at least 20 points, including three 30-point producers, while 10 other Terriers improved upon their point total from the previous season.
• He became the first head coach in program history to win 20 games in his first season.
• Pandolfo had matched Jack Parker’s 19-6-0 record in 1973-74 as the best start by a BU head coach in program history.
• Parker began the next season 2-0-0 to go 21-6-0 (.778) before his next loss, finishing his first two seasons at 45-11-1 (.798).

NHL HOPEFULS
• Fourteen of the Terriers on this year’s roster have been chosen by in the National Hockey League Entry Draft.
• No other school in the NCAA boasts more draft picks on its roster than BU.
