Providence College sophomore Logan Sawyer (Orangeville, Ont.) was named Boston Children's Hospital Hockey East Player of the Week on Monday (Jan. 19). Sawyer earns his third-career weekly accolade after being a two-time Rookie of the Week selection in 2024-25. Sawyer registered both game-winning goals last weekend as the Friars swept Boston College in a weekend series for the first time since 2002. Sawyer scored the winner in overtime on Friday night at Conte Forum before netting the eventual game-winner on Saturday night in Providence's 4-3 win. This season, Sawyer ranks second on the team in scoring with 18 points and is tied for the team lead in goals with nine.

Former Friar Nick Saracino '16 Named To Italy's Roster For 2026 Milano Cortina Olympics

Former Providence College men's hockey national champion Nick Saracino '16 (St. Louis, Mo.) was named to Italy's roster for the 2026 Milano Cortina Olympic Games set to run from Feb. 5-19. Saracino becomes the second men's hockey player to participate in the Olympics for Italy, joining Gates Orlando (1992, 1994, 1998).

Goaltender Michael Simpson Added To The Roster

Michael Simpson joins the Friars after spending this season with the Savannah Ghost Pirates of the ECHL. With Savannah, Simpson recorded a 2.63 GAA and .909 save percentage in 10 games played. He participated in training camp with the Florida Panthers prior to the start of this season. In 2024-25, he appeared in a total of 16 games split between Belleville (AHL) and Orlando (ECHL).

The two-time OHL Champion won titles with the Peterborough Petes in 2022-23, alongside current Friar Donovan McCoy, and a championship the following season with the London Knights in 2023-24. He earned the Wayne Gretzky 99 Award as OHL Playoff MVP with Peterborough in 2023 after turning in a pair of 50-save performances during the OHL Championship Series. He guided London to an OHL title and a runner-up finish in the Memorial Cup in 2024, winning the Happ Emms Memorial Trophy as the Most Outstanding Goaltender of the Memorial Cup. Simpson was a two-time OHL All-Star Team selection in 2023 (Third Team) and 2024 (Second Team).

Friars By The Numbers

Three members of this year's roster hail from Saskatchewan - Hudson Malinoski, Roger McQueen and Quinn Mantei. Malinoski and McQueen are childhood friends and played together with the Saskatoon Blazers AAA squad in 2021-22. Mantei and McQueen were teammates with the Brandon Wheat Kings from 2022-25.

2025-26 Hockey East Standings

NATE
HEAD COACH

Entering his 15th season at the helm in 2025-26, Head Coach Nate Leaman has led a resurgence of the Providence College men's hockey program, highlighted by winning the 2015 NCAA Championship, marking the first NCAA title in program history. Leaman's squad earned another Frozen Four appearance during the 2018-19 campaign.

In 2024-25, the Friars posted their 13th-consecutive winning season under Leaman and eighth season of at least 20 wins (21-11-5). Providence finished the Hockey East slate at 11-8-5, good for fifth place and a first-round bye in the Hockey East Tournament. The team also made its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2019, Leaman's seventh with the Friars and the program's 16th all-time appearance in the tournament. At the conclusion of the season, Guillaume Richard (CBJ), Faige Harding (CHI) and Trevor Connelly (VGK) all signed entry-level NHL contracts.

The Providence College Years

The 2023-24 campaign yielded the program's 12th-consecutive winning season under Nate Leaman as the Friars finished fourth in Hockey East with an 11-9-4 record and 18-13-4 mark overall. Providence made its 13th quarterfinal appearance in 13 seasons under Leaman. The Friars boasted victories against three Frozen Four participants in 2023-24, including a 4-3 victory over eventual national champion Denver in October. Providence also earned a shootout victory over Boston University, the fourth Frozen Four participant. The team won its season-opener in their first-ever visit to Yost Ice Arena against the University of Michigan, defeating the Wolverines, 4-2. On Jan. 13, the Friars scored a 4-3 victory over Boston College, their first win over a No. 1-ranked opponent since 2011.

The 2022-23 season saw the Friars record their 11th-consecutive winning season under Nate Leaman. Providence appeared in an NCAA-high 15 overtime games, going 5-3-7 in those games including two postseason victories. The Friars advanced to the Hockey East Quarterfinals for the 12th time in Nate Leaman's 12 seasons after a 2-1 overtime victory over New Hampshire in the Hockey East Opening Round. They followed that up with their seventh semifinal appearance under Nate Leaman after a thrilling 2-1 overtime victory on the road at Northeastern. Providence was defeated by eventual Hockey East Champion Boston University, 2-1 in overtime at TD Garden on March 18. Junior Brett Berard signed a three-year, entry-level contract with the New York Rangers, forgoing his senior season. Max Crozier signed a two-year, entry-level deal with the Tampa Bay Lightning, along with Parker Ford, who signed a free agent deal with the Winnipeg Jets. Parker Ford was named a Walter Brown Award Semifinalist as the top Division I American-born college hockey player in New England. Ford and Crozier were also named Third Team Hockey East All-Stars and Hobey Baker Award Nominees.

The 2021-22 edition of the Friars posted the 10th-consecutive winning season and seventh 20-win campaign (22-14-2) since Leaman's arrival. The team appeared in their 11th Hockey East Quarterfinal in 11 seasons after a 2-1 win over Vermont in the Hockey East Opening Round. The most notable of the 22 wins came on Oct. 22, 2021 as the Friars rallied from a 4-1 third period deficit to defeat the eventual national champion Denver Pioneers, 6-5, at Schneider Arena. Sophomores Brett Berard (18-20-38) and Nick Poisson (10-25-35) paced the team in scoring and finished third and fifth respectively in scoring among Hockey East players. Berard and defenseman Max Crozier earned Third Team Hockey East recognition. Leaman and Theresa Feaster also returned to the 2022 U.S. National Junior Team staff before the tournament was cancelled due to COVID-19. They will return when the 2022 IIHF World Junior Championship resumes in August 2022.

The COVID-19 pandemic-shortened 2020-21 season saw the program post its ninth-consecutive winning season (11-9-5) and advance to its sixth Hockey East Semifinal appearance in 10 seasons under Leaman. Tyce Thompson led the team in scoring with 25 points (11g, 14a) in 25 games played, earning his second-consecutive Second Team Hockey East All-Star accolade. Thompson signed an entry-level contract with the New Jersey Devils at the conclusion of the season, appearing in seven games and posting one assist. Leaman also boasted success on the international stage in 2020-21, leading Team USA to a gold medal at the 2021 World Junior Championships. Leaman was also joined on staff by Friar Director of Hockey Operations, Theresa Feaster. Current Friars Brett Berard and Patrick Moynihan also boasted key contributions to the United States' gold medal performance. Leaman will return as Head Coach for the 2022 World Junior Championships. Leaman also served as an Assistant Coach for Team USA at the 2021 World Championships in Latvia, where the U.S. earned a bronze medal.

In 2019-20, the Friars posted their eight-consecutive winning season with a 16-12-6 mark before the postseason was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Despite a bitter end to the season, Providence student-athletes boasted notable individual accolades. Sophomore Jack Dugan led the NCAA in scoring with 52 points on 10 goals and 42 assists, while teammate Tyce Thompson finished third in the NCAA scoring race with 44 points on 19 goals and 25 assists. Dugan was the program's first Hobey Baker finalist since Rob Gaudreau in 1992. He was also a First Team CCM All-American and First Team Hockey East All-Star. Defenseman Mike Callahan was also a First Team Hockey East All-Star, while Thompson earned Second Team recognition. In 2018-19, Providence once again earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament, marking the program's sixth-consecutive appearance and advanced to the Frozen Four for the second time in five seasons. The Friars finished tied for second in the Hockey East standings and secured at least 22 wins for the sixth-consecutive season. Providence rallied from a 3-0 deficit to defeat No. 1 seeded Minnesota State, 6-3, at the Dunkin' Donuts Center in Providence to advance to a regional final game in back-to-back seasons. A 4-0 shutout win over Cornell the following day propelled the team to the Frozen Four in Buffalo, where they fell to eventual national champion, Minnesota Duluth in the national semifinals. Goaltender Hayden Hawkey re-wrote the record books in 2018-19, setting program goaltending records for career wins (72), shutouts (16), games played (125) and minutes played (7319:42). His eight shutouts in 2018-19 was a single-season program record and led all NCAA netminders. Four Friars earned Hockey East All-Star recognition - Josh Wilkins (First Team), Jacob Bryson (Second Team), Brandon Duhaime (Third Team) and Hawkey (Honorable Mention). Wilkins also earned Second Team All-American accolades after posting the most points in season by a Friar (46) since 2002-03. Juniors Jacob Bryson (BUF), Kasper Bjorkqvist (PIT), Brandon Duhaime (MIN) and Josh Wilkins (NSH) all signed NHL contracts at the conclusion of the season.

In 2017-18, the Friars recorded their fifth-consecutive 20-plus win season and fifth-straight NCAA Tournament appearance, the second-longest active streak in the NCAA. Providence advanced to their first Hockey East Championship Game since 2001 after rallying for a 3-2 overtime win in the semifinals against Northeastern. The following week, the Friars advanced to the NCAA East Regional Final after a 1-0 shutout of Clarkson in Bridgeport, Conn. The shutout marked Hayden Hawkey's fourth of the season and put him second all-time at Providence with eight career shutouts. Hawkey earned Second Team Hockey East and New England All-Star recognition. The Friars boasted many postseason accolades - Jacob Bryson earned Second Team All-American honors, marking the fourth-consecutive season a Friar was named an All-American. For his efforts, he was named Hockey East Coach of the Year and a Spencer Penrose finalist for National Coach of the Year. The senior class totaled 99 wins over four seasons, setting the program record for wins by a graduating class. The Friars .813 winning percentage at Schneider Arena (13-3-0) was the second-best winning percentage at Schneider Arena in 44 seasons. In 2016-17, Leaman's squad notched at 22 wins, marking its fourth consecutive season with at least 20-plus victories. Overall, the Friars finished at 22-12-5 (12-7-3), good for fifth in the Hockey East and good for its fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament berth. The team notched a double-digit win total (13) at Schneider Arena for the fourth consecutive season. The senior class posted a 53-15-7 at home over the last four seasons (.753). The 13-3-3 record (.763) at home in 2016-17 was the fifth-best winning percentage posted at Schneider Arena in 43 seasons. The Friars' resurgence in the second half saw a nine-game winning streak from January to February, falling just one win shy of the program record (10) set in 2015-16. Providence appeared in the Hockey East Quarterfinals for the sixth time in Leaman's six seasons. Friar defenseman Jake Walman was the lone repeat All-American in 2016-17 and became the program's six member to be a two-time All-American selection. Walman also earned First Team Hockey East and First Team All-New England accolades prior to signing an entry-level contract with the St. Louis Blues in March 2017. The Friars boasted the second-most wins in program history in 2015-16 (27) and earned their third-consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament. Overall, the Friars finished the season with a 27-7-4 record, including a program-best 16-3-3 Hockey East record which netted the team its first share of the Hockey East regular season title. Paced by Mark Jankowski's 40 points, the first time a Friar has hit the 40-point ing all NCAA defenseman in goals (13), points per game (1.04), power play goals (8), and game-winning goals (4). Walman became the first Friar since Tim Army and Chris Terreri in 1984-85 to earn First Team All-American accolades. Jankowski earned Second Team All-American honors for his 15 goals and 25 assists in 2015-16.

Junior goaltender Nick Ellis (25-7-4) put forth the best goaltending performance in Friars history with a 1.80 GAA and .936 save percentage and also tallied four shutouts in 2015-16. Ellis' top performance of the season came in the finale as he set a NCAA Northeast Regional record with 54 saves in a 2-1 double overtime setback to Minnesota Duluth on March 25.

The Friars advanced to the Hockey East Championship semifinals at the TD Garden for the fourth time in Leaman's first five seasons and holds a 5-2-0 record in seven NCAA Tournament games with Providence.

Nine members from the 2015-16 squad ended up signing entry level contracts or amateur try-out agreements with professional teams: Tom Parisi (Montreal - NHL), Mark Jankowski (Calgary - NHL), Brandon Tanev (Winnipeg - NHL), Nick Ellis (Edmonton - NHL), John Gilmour (New York Rangers - NHL), Kevin Rooney (Albany - AHL), Trevor Mingoia (Albany - AHL), Nick Saracino (Iowa - AHL), and Steve McParland (Elmira - ECHL). Tanev appeared in the final three regular season games with the Jets.

In 2014-15, Leaman guided the Friars to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances for the first time in program history and Providence posted its second-highest win total of all-time (26). He became the youngest head coach to win the NCAA title since 1993 (Shawn Walsh) as Providence College became the 20th institution to win the NCAA Div. I Men's Ice Hockey Championship. The 2015 championship also marked Providence College's first NCAA team title in a men's sport and the College's third overall NCAA Championship in a team sport.

During the 2014-15 National Hockey League season Josh Jooris (Union College) and Tim Schaller '13 (Providence College) became the most recent former Leaman players to reach the NHL when they debuted for the Calgary Flames and the Buffalo Sabres, respectively.

The 2011 Spencer Penrose Award winner, Leaman also was a Spencer Penrose finalist in 2015 and was named the 2015 USCHO.com Coach of the Year. Providence finished the 2014-15 season ranked No. 1 in the national polls (USCHO.com and USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine). The Friars last cracked the top two-places in the national polls in January of 1990, when they were ranked No. 2 in the Times Union poll.

After leading Providence through the 2015 NCAA East Regional (Providence, R.I.) with wins over No. 1 seed Miami, 7-5, and No. 2 seed Denver, 4-1, Leaman and the Friars headed to the Frozen Four for the fourth time in program history and first time since 1985.

At the 2015 Frozen Four (Boston, Mass.), Providence downed No. 2 seed Nebraska Omaha, 4-1, in the national semifinals to advance to the NCAA Championship game for the second time in program history. Leaman then guided the Friars to their first-ever NCAA Championship with a thrilling, come-from-behind 4-3 victory over No. 1 seed Boston University at the TD Garden (April 11). Junior goaltender Jon Gillies made a career-high 49 saves en route to being named the Frozen Four's Most Outstanding Player. Junior forward Brandon Tanev netted the game-winning goal with 6:17 remaining in the third period. The Friars finished the 2014-15 season with a 26-13-2 record, marking the second-highest win total in program history. Providence also finished the 2014-15 regular season with a 21-11-2 mark, which tied for the second-most regular-season wins in program history.

The Friars finished the regular-season with a 13-8-1 mark in Hockey East play and tied for second in the league standings, matching their best-ever Hockey East finish. Providence earned the No. 2 seed in the Hockey East playoffs, its highest seed in the Hockey East Tournament, and appeared in the Hockey East Quarterfinals for the fourth-consecutive season. Providence also finished the season ranked fifth in the nation in scoring defense, yielding just 2.05 goals-against per game.

In 2013-14, Leaman guided the Friars back to the NCAA Championship field for the first time since 2001 and Providence went on to record its first NCAA win since 1991.

The 2013-14 season saw the Friars post a 22-11-6 record, tying the mark for the third-most wins in program history. Providence placed third in the regular-season Hockey East standings and, after a home, quarterfinal-series sweep of Maine, advanced to the Hockey East Championship semifinals for a program-record third straight year. After defeating Quinnipiac in NCAA First Round play, Leaman and the Friars advanced to the NCAA East Regional final where they fell to eventual national champion Union, 3-1. Leaman became the 16th NCAA Div. I men's hockey head coach to lead two different teams to the NCAA Tournament.

Led by Mauermann, the Friar offense scored 115 goals in 2013-14, the most since the 2002-03 season. Mauermann scored 19 goals and added 17 assists for 36 points to become the highest scoring Friar since the 2003-04 season when three players topped the 36-point plateau. Mauermann, who has led the Friars in scoring in each of Leaman's first three seasons, was also named the Hockey East's Co-Defensive Forward of the Year in addition to being named the League's Len Ceglarski Individual Sportsmanship Award winner.

Gillies set the Providence record for career shutouts (9), surpassing the seven career shutouts that Tyler Sims '08 posted from 2004-08. Gillies became the second Friar to take part in multiple World Junior Championships after he started for Team USA at the 2014 WJC in Malmö, Sweden and won gold with Team USA at the 2013 WJC in Ufa, Russia. Gillies finished the 2013-14 season with the nation's fourth-best save percentage (.931).

Other 2013-14 highlights included the program's first six-game winning streak since 2005-06 and a regular-season-ending sweep at Maine, which marked Providence's first sweep at Maine since 2007. That sweep put the Friars in position to host a Hockey East Quarterfinal series for a second consecutive season. The Friar penalty kill ended the season ranked third-best in the country with an 87.2 success rate, while the team defense's 2.26 goals-against per game ranked seventh nationally.

In 2012-13, Leaman led the Friars to a 17-14-7 overall record and a 13-8-6 mark in Hockey East play. It marked the most wins for a Friar squad since the 2005-06 season. The 13 Hockey East wins tied for the third-most in program history. The Friars entered the last weekend of the regular season in contention for the league title for the first time ever and went on to win a home quarterfinal Hockey East playoff series for the first time since 2001. The Friars then made a second consecutive Hockey East semifinal appearance, marking the first time in 17 seasons that Providence made back-to-back Hockey East semifinals appearances.

In his first season at Providence (2011-12), Leaman led the Friars to the Hockey East Semifinals for the first time since 2001. Providence defeated No. 2 seed UMass Lowell in a best-of-three quarterfinal series to become the first No. 7 seed to ever win a Hockey East Quarterfinal series.

Leaman, who was appointed the 12th coach at Providence on April 22, 2011 after spending eight seasons as the head coach at Union College, guided Providence to 14 victories during the 2011-12 season. Among those wins was a two-game, weekend sweep of then No. 1 ranked Merrimack on December 3-4. The 2-1 overtime triumph on Dec. 2 was PC's first over a No. 1 team since 2003. After their successful weekend against Merrimack, the Friars were ranked in the USCHO.com national poll for the first time since 2008. In all, Providence recorded seven wins against nationally ranked teams, including five victories against squads in the top-10. Mauermann was named to the Hockey East All-Rookie Team, becoming the first Friar to earn the honor since 2007.
